

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

CREW©-PRODUCTIONS

CREW cannot accept liability for the loss of any personal belongings at our events.

It is important to realise that for safety reasons we can only guarantee a place on any summer camp to those booking in advance.

CREW may from time to time use photographs taken on the summer camp for advertising literature. We will require parents/guardians permission for these pictures.

In the unlikely event of injury, your permission is granted for our staff to administer first aid.

Enrolling on a CREW summer camp confirms that you agree to the disclaimer outlined in all CREW application forms. This outlines that CREW are NOT Liable for any injuries a child suffers on a CREW programme.

All data stored is only used for marketing purposes within CREW summer camps. If you wish not to be on our database please contact us at info@crew.uk.net and we will remove you.

See below waiver that you must read when enrolling on one of our CREW© summer camps:

By enrolling on a CREW summer camp (including by making payment and/or sending your child(ren) to participate) you:

- (i) Are agreeing to CREW terms and conditions, which are available on request and on www.crew.uk.net;
- (ii) Agree that your child(ren) is/are in suitable health and is/are able to participate in physical activity;
- (iii) Grant permission for your child(ren) to receive emergency medical treatment;
- (iv) Agree that to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law CREW, its agents, employees, contractors' liability under or in connection with this agreement shall be limited to any payment made by you to CREW and that CREW shall not be liable for any indirect or consequential losses. However, nothing in this agreement shall exclude or limit CREW's liability for death or personal injury or for other liability, which cannot be excluded limited under applicable law.

